

DEATHS.

FRANK TARVIN.

X Frank Tarvin, aged 86 years, died Thursday, April 1st, at his home at Ashmore, Ill., after a short illness of a complication of diseases. He is survived by a wife and two daughters. He was a brother of W. C. Tarvin, of Butler, who is the only surviving member of a family of twelve children.

Deceased was born and raised in Campbell county and later located in Pendleton. He left this county in 1867. He was a highly esteemed citizen and was well known to many of our older citizens in the northern part of this and Campbell county.